

CSA Open House!

March 24, 2009

Community Supported Agriculture (CSA) connects local community members to locally grown food.

Meet local farmers and learn how to receive regular deliveries of locally grown fresh produce.

The Great Salt Lake RC&D invites you to connect with your food and community by attending this upcoming Community Supported Agriculture Open House

Salt Lake City Main Library
210 East 400 South
Level 4, Conference Room
March 24th
6:30 pm

We hope to see you there!
